J&J Snack Foods Awarded Golbon's "2005 - The Partners in Excellence Award"

The Partners in Excellence Award is given to those suppliers that are servicing 75 or more Golbon members. Golbon believes this shows a dedication to support Golbon and its members with a quality product and excellent customer service. This award is given out to suppliers based on membership feedback to Golbon corporate. Accepting the award from Tom Sapp, Golbon Executive Vice President Purchasing & Merchandising (left), is Cliff Best, J&J Snack Foods' Vice President of Distributor Sales (right).

"It is very gratifying to reach 75 Golbon distributors purchasing our products in only two years. The Golbon members have been very supportive of our program", stated JJSF, VP, Cliff Best.

Golbon was formed in 1963 to provide foodservice distributors premium frozen fruits, vegetables, and potatoes through forward warehousing programs. Golbon has since emerged as a full-service, broadline purchasing and marketing group for independent foodservice distributors.

Golbon Expanded to full-line in 1980, and today, is one of the country's fastest growing marketers. Golbon is at the cutting edge of the foodservice industry with over 550 suppliers, 160 distributors and $6.2 billion in purchasing power. Golbon has addressed the needs of the independent foodservice distributor with an array of programs and services.
